SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Although accounts of clashes between Romanian resistance elements and government forces are in circulation, in actual fact the only outbreaks of violence are local riots of peasants exasperated by the actions of the regime. There are no strong resistance forces concealed in the mountains.
2. The Romanian population has no knowledge of the activities of Romanian refugees abroad, but does know of the formation of a Romanian National Committee in exile. King Mihai is the only personality in emigration who attracts any attention.
